Test paper

1. Choose the correct word :

It was a formidable list and by now Mrs Phelps was filled with wonder and excitement, but it was probably a good thing that she did not allow herself to be completely carried away by it all. Almost anyone else witnessing the achievements of this small child would have been tempted to make a great fuss and shout the news all over the village and beyond, but not so Mrs Phelps. She was someone who minded her own business and had long since discovered it was seldom worthwhile to interfere with other people's children.

"Mr Hemingway says a lot of things I don't……(1)," Matilda said to her. "Especially about men and ……..(2). But I loved it all the same. The way he tells it I feel I am ……(3)there on the spot watching it all happen."

"A fine writer will always make you feel that," Mrs Phelps said. "And don't ……..(4)about the bits you can't understand. Sit back and allow the words to wash around you, like……..(5)."
